Budget & Treasurer's Report: Budget 2009 – 2010 $ 20,142.39.

New Business:

- The County Council position is an elected position. Susan King is interested in this position. At tonight's general meeting there will be a vote to place her into this position.
- Legislation – Doing something different this year. Going on line to vote on legislative item(s).
- Vision and Hearing Test – October 14, 2009. Volunteers still needed.

Next Board Meeting: September 29, 2009

Principal's Corner: Frank Dent introduced Angie Anderson and then went over what is going to happen at Back to School tonight. Ten minutes in each class room and five minutes between classes. Mentioned had a good first day of school. Talked about some people are currently retaking SOL's. There is a $ 7,000,000 budget cut to the County next year thus will have more budget cuts at NSHS. He has an open door policy for students, parents, and teachers. Kids are first with him. He agreed to challenge all Teachers to join the PTSA. The Northside home football game that is against Salem High School was scheduled to be at Salem High School is now going to be held at NSHS. At the September 18, 2009 NSHS football game the PTSA is looking into getting a blow-up mechanical bull ride and will charge $5/ride. Snow cones or cotton candy will sold by the PTSA at all NSHS home football games – still need volunteers to help with this.
